Regulatory process:

Agency approves fast-track regulation and submits it for executive branch review.

Executive branch review:

Office of the Attorney General
Department of Planning and Budget
Cabinet Secretary
Governor

Agency submits fast-track regulation to the Virginia Register via the Town Hall.

 Email notification is sent to registered Town Hall users and appropriate committees of the General Assemby, and

(2) the public may view the fast track regulation and supporting documents on the Town Hall

14 days after Town Hall notice, the fast-track regulation is published in the Register (register.state.va.us/issfiles.htm).

60-day period (minimum) for public comment begins.

15 days after the close of the public comment period,
the regulation becomes effective

(unless the regulation is withdrawn or a later effective date is specified by the agency).

Fast-track regulations

The fast-track process is for proposed regulations that are expected to be noncontroversial. Whether a proposed regulation is noncontroversial is determined by the process detailed on this page.

If, during the public comment period, an objection to the fast-track regulation is received from:

- -Any member of the applicable standing committee of Senate,
- -Any member of the applicable standing committee of the House of Delegates,
- -Any member of the Joint Commission on Administrative Rules (JCAR), or
- -10 or more members of the public,

then publication of the fast-track regulation will serve as the Notice of Intended Regulatory Action (NOIRA).
